Here are my thoughts

My Review

I enjoyed staying at this hostel. It was the first hostel I had ever stayed at.

I chose a 4-person room. The bed was comfortable. I also had a good closet space. The bathroom was right in front of my room, which was super nice. The kitchen was spacious enough to hold a good number of people.

My only complaint would be that everyone was very cliquey. I didn't really see people venturing outside of their groups to try to make new friends.

Some of the staff were wonderful compared to others who didn't go above and beyond to make everyone feel welcome.
