My Review

Lylo has definitely been the best hostel I have ever stayed in. From the smooth check-in process to all the facilities that they have, everything was extremely clean and absolutely amazing.

The attention that the staff had was exceptional. Anytime I had a concern or needed to get something from the storage room, they were very eager to help.

I stayed in a 4-person pod room, which was a bit small, but the bed was extremely comfortable, and I had a spacious half closet.

I definitely recommend staying at Lylo!

My Review

I stayed in a 4-person room with an indoor bathroom, which was pretty nice. The beds were very, very comfortable. The rooms were spacious and wonderfully clean. However, every morning I was awoken by the loud vacuum cleaner that the staff used to clean the rooms.

The kitchen has a great lounge area. At times, it was a bit chaotic to cook because the table is right in the center of the room.

The location of this hostel is amazing, with plenty of restaurants and shops nearby. Although K Road has a reputation for being dangerous due to visible homelessness and drug use, I never felt unsafe during my stay.

My Review

I stayed in a 6-person all-female room with its own separate bathroom. The AC was blasting the whole night, which meant I slept amazingly. The comforter was a bit heavy, which meant my body was extremely relaxed.

The hostel has an amazing homey vibe going on, which I absolutely love. The kitchen cutlery is all mismatched, which I find very warming.

This hostel location is truly amazing. Right in the middle of the city. The sky tower is right across the street. It is very close to a bunch of convenience stores, which always come in handy.

The kitchen says it's closed, but people still use it after hours, which is very nice.
